DETAILED ACTION

Response to Request for Continued Examination

The examiner is in receipt of applicant's response to office action mailed 2/3/2006, which was received 5/22/2006. Acknowledgement is made to the amendment of claims 24,27,28,33 and 34, leaving claims 24,25,27,28,33 and 34 as open to prosecution. The examiner has considered applicant's amendment and arguments and finds them to be persuasive, however, after further searching a new grounds of rejection, necessitated by amendment, follows:

Examiner's Note

Examiner has cited particular columns and line numbers or figures in the references as applied to the claims below for the convenience of the applicant. Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings in the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may apply as well. It is respectfully requested from the applicant, in preparing the responses, to fully consider the references in entirety as potentially teaching all or part of the claimed invention, as well as the context of the passage as taught by the prior art or disclosed by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 24,25,27,28,33 and 34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Publicover (US PG Pub 2004/0236635).

In regards to claims 24,25,27,28,33 and 34, Publicover teaches all the features of the instant claims. For instance, Publicover discloses storing purchased products in a remote site for later pick-up (para 0043) and presenting identification information to verify the person picking up the product is authorized (para 0040) then further ID's the customer and directs the delivery of the product to a predetermined location (para 0055).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 24,25,27,28,33 and 34 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
